

Are you looking to expand your experience in project management? Are you eager to learn from seasoned colleagues? Then don't miss this unique opportunity!

We are hiring a graduate in Marketing/Communications (male or female) as Junior Project Manager to help us manage and coordinate our projects smoothly.

If you're enthusiastic, hard-working, can keep your cool under pressure and have a keen eye for detail, then our starters' vacancy could be just the role you're looking for.

Together with our experienced project managers, you will work on a wide range of projects: from large-scale, multi-channel campaigns to one-off brochures. Every project is equally important and it will be your task to help see it through – from briefing, through execution, to wrap-up.

On the job, you will learn the secrets of successful project management and gain exciting insights into the world of technology marketing. Working with us means working hard and taking pride in what you do. You will coordinate with customers and our creative team and be expected to juggle multiple projects at once. We value your ideas and input and would love to hear your suggestions for ongoing improvements. Showing initiative and being pro-active are key components of working at KPUNKT.

You could join our Stuttgart based team as a
