

Do you dream in multi-media?

If so, do you fancy helping us help our clients?

Are you looking for a job that offers rewarding responsibility, opportunities to work with a variety of messages and media, and both direct engagement with clients and collaboration as part of a team? A job where you get to dig into the details of presentation possibilities and the strengths of different communication channels to make a difference in how well an idea gets across?

You could join our Stuttgart team as a

Graphic creative and spend a working day tackling various challenges from PDF to MP4, from rollups to scrollbars, by being able to switch gears fast. For example:

- Working with content developers to help words come alive on the page
- Pitching the design concept for a cross-media campaign
- Developing the look and feel of a website
- Accompanying a video or animation from storyboarding to release
- Constructing infographics to communicate insights

About you

At KPUNKT you're appreciated for who you are, the ideas you bring, and the energy you invest. We're interested in a designer who:

- has a higher level qualification in graphic design, or an equivalent level reached by experience
- has at least 3 to 5 years working experience, preferably in an agency
- can work precisely and autonomously, while being open to practical feedback, shifting priorities, and often ambitious deadlines
- is interested in business-to-business marketing, is not afraid of technology, and is willing to get to grips with complex content
- has an open attitude to developments in marketing related technologies (Internet, mobile, social, ...)
- is unafraid of HTML and CSS, and is comfortable using Adobe Creative Suite (InDesign, Photoshop, Illustrator, After Effects, Premiere)
- is comfortable communicating in English – knowing German too would make you even more attractive!
- lives within commuting distance of the Stuttgart office

Job content:

- 30% concept development/graphic design
- 40% screen, user interface, animation/video, and online design
- 20% DTP, layout work, adapting and updating existing layouts, creating print files, etc.
- 10% others (general coordination and team alignment, ad hoc tasks)

What we offer:

- A full-time position (40 hours a week)
- Competitive salary
- A creative working environment, based in Stuttgart
