

Looking to build on your experience in project management? Eager to learn from seasoned colleagues? Then don't miss this unique opportunity!

We are hiring a graduate in Marketing/Communications as a Project Manager (Junior) to help us manage and coordinate our projects smoothly.

If you're enthusiastic, hard-working, keep your cool under pressure and have a keen eye for detail, then our starters' vacancy could be just the role for you.

Together with our experienced project managers, you'll work on a wide range of projects: from large-scale, multi-channel campaigns to one-off brochures. Every project is equally important and it will be your task to help see it through – from briefing through execution to wrap-up.

On the job, you'll learn the secrets of successful project management and gain exciting insights into the world of technology marketing. Working with us means working hard and taking pride in what you do. You'll coordinate with customers and our creative team and be expected to juggle multiple projects at once. We value your ideas and input and would love to hear your suggestions for ongoing improvements. Showing initiative and being pro-active are key components of working at KPUNKT.

You could join our Eindhoven based team as a
